through innovation, initiative, technology, new products and the development of its business capital;

- (iii) Adopt performance measures to monitor implementation and performance of the strategy, policies, plans, legal and fiduciary obligations that affect the business;
- (iv) Oversee the conduct of the Group's business to evaluate whether the business is being properly managed. This includes ensuring the solvency of the Group and the ability of the Group to meet its contractual obligations and to safeguard its assets;
- (v) Appoint the Group Chief Executive Officer and any other person(s) of Chief Level Executives (as defined in the TOR of the Board Nomination and Remuneration Committee ("BNRC")) including setting the terms, objectives and goals of his/her employment contract;
- (vi) Ensure the Group has appropriate business risk management processes, including adequate control environment be it the internal control systems or management information systems, systems for compliance with applicable laws, regulations, rules, directives and guidelines and controls in areas of significant financial and business risks;
- (vii) Appoint Board Committees to address specific issues, considering recommendations of the Board Committees and discuss problems and reservations arising from the Board Committees' deliberations;
- (viii) Ensure that the statutory accounts of the Group are fairly stated and otherwise conform with the relevant regulations and acceptable accounting policies;
- (ix) Ensure that an appropriate succession planning mechanism is in place for members of the Board and for Senior Management positions;
- (x) Ensure that the Group adheres to high standards of ethics and corporate behaviour including transparency in the conduct of business. Directors are required to comply with the Directors' Code of Conduct, which amongst others, include the declaration of any personal, professional or business interest, direct or indirect which may conflict with directors' responsibilities as a Board member and to refrain from voting on such transaction with the Group;

The Directors' Code of Conduct is attached herewith as Appendix A.

- (xi) Ensure that an appropriate public relations and communication programmes and an investor relation programme are in place; and
- (xii) Ensure that there is a schedule of matters reserved for collective decision of the Board.

The Schedule of Matters reserved for the collective decision of the Board are as listed in Appendix B.

3.5 In carrying out the principal responsibilities of the Board, each Director shall do the following:-

- (i) Attend all Board meetings but where attendance at meetings is not possible, ensure that appropriate steps are taken to obtain a leave of absence;
- (ii) Acquire knowledge about the business of the Group, the statutory and regulatory requirements affecting the effective discharge of their duties to the Group, and be aware of the physical, political and social environment in which the Group operates;
- (iii) Study in advance all information and documentary materials provided and be prepared to discuss their contents at Board meetings;
- (iv) Assist the Chairman in providing the Group with effective leadership;
- (v) Be available to advise Management between Board meetings as and when necessary;

- (vi) Participate actively and to effectively contribute to Board discussions towards meeting the duties and responsibilities of the Board as outlined herein and in the respective TOR of Board Committees (where applicable);
 - (vii) Always be alert of potential conflicts of interest that may affect the performance of his or her fiduciary duty towards the Group and seek to avoid these potential conflicts wherever possible. Any interest, actual or perceived (direct or indirect) should be declared to the Board as soon as possible; and
 - (viii) Act honestly, in good faith and in the best interest of the Group as a whole, using due care and diligence in fulfilling his or her responsibilities, and exercising the powers attached to that office.
- 3.6 Directors should consult the Chairman and/or the Company Secretary for any clarification on their responsibilities and duties and on any dealing from where a potential conflict of interest situation may arise.

4. BOARD STRUCTURE

4.1 Board balance and composition

- 4.1.1 The composition of the Board is to reflect the duties and responsibilities it has in discharging and performing its responsibilities. The composition of the Board shall reflect as much as possible or practicable, proportional representation of various investors in the Group. A Director is not required to hold any qualification share in the Company.
- 4.1.2 The Articles of Association of the Company provide for a minimum of two (2) and a maximum of twelve (12) Directors. Pursuant to the Listing Requirements, the Company must ensure that at least 2 Directors or 1/3 of the Board, whichever is the higher, are Independent Directors.
- 4.1.3 The rights of the Company's Special Shareholder are as stipulated in the Articles.

Board Charter of Pos Malaysia Berhad

4.1.4 As recommended under the MCCG 2012, subject to paragraph 4.1.5, the tenure of an Independent Director of the Company should not exceed a cumulative term of nine (9) years. The nine-year period can either be based on a consecutive service basis or a cumulative basis with intervals.

4.1.5 In the event the Board wishes to maintain the directorate of an Independent Director beyond the nine-year limitation period, the Board must justify and seek specific Shareholders' approval on the matter at the Company's general meeting. If Shareholders' approval is not obtained, upon completion of the nine-year period, an Independent Director may still continue to serve on the Board but subject to him/her being re-designated as Non-Independent Director.

	4.1.6	Directors shall not hold directorships in more than five (5) public listed companies at any one time subject to amendment(s) that may be made to this limitation by Bursa Securities from time to time. Before accepting any new directorship, a Director shall first notify the Chairman of the Board and the notification shall include an indication of time that the said Director will spend vis-a-vis the new appointment.
4.2.	Board Diversity
	4.2.1	The Board supports the gender boardroom diversity as recommended under the MCCG 2012 by taking various steps to ensure women candidates are considered as part of the recruitment exercise. Pos Malaysia recognises that advancing gender equality throughout business operations and value chains can tap better talent, higher productivity, better organizational effectiveness and overall corporate success.
	4.2.2	The Board through BNRC will review the appropriate proportion of female to male Directors on the Board at the time of considering appointment of new Directors to the Board. The selection criteria of a Director will be based on an effective blend of competencies, skills, extensive experience and knowledge necessary for the Board to discharge its responsibilities.
	4.2.3	In this regard, BNRC shall take the following steps to ensure women participation on Boards despite not setting any target for Pos Malaysia towards meeting the recommendation under the MCCG 2012:-

		<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Assess the appropriate mix of diversity including gender, ethnicity and age, candidates' skills, knowledge, expertise and experience required on the Board and identify the existing gap, if any; 2. Adhere to the recruitment procedures of Pos Malaysia and develop a list of candidates which shall always include diverse candidates and in any director search; Whenever reasonably possible, priority be given on the appointment of woman Director to fill a directorship vacated by a retiring or resigning woman Director. 3. Interview and evaluate the candidates; thereafter, recommendation be made to the Board in relation to appointments by ensuring that an appropriate mix of diversity, skills, knowledge, expertise and experience on the Board shall be maintained from time to time; 4. Review and assess the boardroom diversity on a regular basis. Any gap occurred in relation thereto shall be reported to the Board.
4.3.	New Board Member
	4.3.1	Newly appointed Directors shall be briefed on the terms of their appointment, their duties and responsibilities. Copies of the following shall be provided to the newly appointed Director:- <ol style="list-style-type: none"> i. this Board Charter; ii. the Company's Memorandum and Articles of Association; iii. Latest Annual Report and audited financial statements of the Company; iv. Latest Strategic Plans and Annual Management Plan of the Company; and v. Organisation Chart.

4.3.2 A Board induction session shall be conducted by Management to give the newly appointed Director an overview of the business and strategic plans of the Group.

4.4 Role of Chairman

4.4.1 The roles of the Chairman and the GCEO shall be separated. The Chairman is responsible for representing the Board to the Shareholders and is responsible for ensuring the integrity and effectiveness of the governance process of the Board. The Chairman shall maintain regular dialogues with the GCEO over all operational matters and shall promptly consult with the Board over any matter that gives him or her any cause of concern pertaining to the Group.

- 4.4.2 The Chairman shall act as a facilitator at meetings of the Board to ensure that no Director, whether executive or non-executive, dominates discussions at Board meetings. He shall ensure that appropriate discussions take place and relevant opinions among Directors are forthcoming. The Chairman shall also ensure that discussions result in logical and understandable outcomes.

The key roles and responsibilities of the Chairman include the following:-

- (i) Provide governance in matters requiring corporate justice and integrity;
- (ii) Manage Board communication and Board effectiveness and effective supervision over Management;
- (iii) Create conditions for good decision making during Board and Shareholders meetings;
- (iv) Ensure Board proceedings are in compliance with good conduct and practices;
- (v) Protect the interest and provide for (if permissible) the information needs of various Stakeholders;
- (vi) Maintain good contact and effective relationship with external parties, investing public, regulatory agencies and trade associations;
- (vii) Ensure that quality information to facilitate decision-making is delivered to the Board by Management in a timely manner; and
- (viii) Ensure compliance with all relevant regulations and legislations.

4.5 Board Committees

- 4.5.1 The Board may delegate its responsibilities for specified matters to individual Directors or Board Committees. Each Board Committee must be provided with written TOR which clearly state the extent and limits of their responsibilities and authority and whether they can act on behalf of the Board, or to provide the necessary reporting to the Board.

4.5.2 The present Board Committees are as follows:-

- (i) Board Audit Committee - The TOR of the Board Audit Committee is as set out in Appendix C;
